"Why"

Visit "Why" on MotoLyrics.com

I push myself,
Tell me why do I?
I try to stand tall but my strength fades inside,
Why do you put me down everytime that i try?
To make you see inside...

My heart is wondering why
Things are starting to get out of hand
Realize that I'm dying in pain
Why must things always end up this way

The emptiness from the silence drives me insane,
Just to hear your sweet voice will bring blue skies once again,
I yearn to feel your touch and hold you in my arms,
but you don't seem to feel,
the same way

My heart is wondering why
Things are starting to get out of hand
Realize that I'm dying in pain
Why must things always end up this way

So realize whats going on,
Let me show you how my heart feels.
Do you still love me girl?
Do you still want my world?
Tell me if you want to stay...

My heart is wondering why
Things are starting to get out of hand
Realize that I'm dying in pain
Why must things always end up this way
