amy blew up a carls jr she left a note at her boyfriends said i'm feeling much better so don't come look for me cause i really need to be alone i'm wanted now and they'll follow me i know they will i'll write to you but don't expect me to come home highway to see her brother danny he was shooting a porno with a camera that he stole from circuit city he said you can't stay here cause i can't attract attention you're wanted now and they'll follow you

i know they will
what the hell were you thinking no wait

i think i know basketball means nothing anymore i watch the cars go by and i wonder what they're for my tv set has replaced what was in my head amy she moved to new york city she got a job and a pistol that she carried on the subway she said don't follow me cause it's really best that i'm alone i'm trying now to fit in with the rest of them i'll try to write but don't be surprised if i don't
