thomas must have been confused there's nothing in here we can use every road in every town how could he know anyhow solo highway headed east headlights on but we won't see the distance that we leave behind will catch up with us in good time yeah let's put the windows down the desert makes a lovely sound pretense disappears difference is we're still here lincoln runs so nice from it all i know what you want to hear that the end of perquisite is near i won't interfere with your work and when i cry

you won't see you won't hear yeah pull over we'll sleep here and i'll be warm if you stay near
