Once a boy knew a girl
Underneath all the branches and apples
How they danced and they swirled
What a lovely world

Things were going so well
I told you secrets I probably shouldn't tell
In you hands lay my fate
So I wait and wait wait

All I, All I wanted was for you to be
All I, All I wanted was for you to be
All I, All I wanted was for you to be
Happy

Fall was melancholy
I never thought that you would leave me
Sail away into the sun in a boat that's built for one

All I, All I wanted was for you to be
All I, All I wanted was for you to be
All I, All I wanted was for you to be
Happy

I'm so insecure
I'm just not sure if you love me anymore
If I let you go will the wind blow you back to my door?

All I, All I wanted was for you to be
All I, All I wanted was for you to be
All I, All I wanted was for you to be
Happy
