Sunny Sunny, what a pretty pretty face
Don't you wanna go off to some pretty pretty place
Sleeping in late, eat the coconut sweet
Walk in the grass in your bare feet,
Sunny

Sunny, Sunny, Don't know what to say
D'you get enough for what you gave away?
What are you thinking when you tell yourself
Ain't no kinda life for anyone else but
Sunny

Remember the photograph
The one where you used to laugh

Sunny Sunny, with the sad sad eyes
A whole life long, cut down to size
Must be hard to get to sleep at night
When you live somewhere between the earth and sky

Wish you could see yourself
Before it all went to hell
Remember the way it was Like Eden before it fell to Sunny

Sunny Sunny it's such a shame
I wish your life was more like your name
What's sadder still than all of this
Is you believe it's just the way it is
Sunny

Sunny Sunny, what a pretty pretty face
Don't you wanna go off to some pretty pretty place
Sunny
