"A Wiser Man"

He gives a damn
He's a wiser man
So truly understands

A positive being
Brings life a meaning
I salute you from where I stand

I stumbled upon words
I sought for so long
Now I'll make some time

To ease my weary self down

In the eye of the beholder
A penny for your thoughts
And I'm growing older
When I'm down, yes, indeed
A nervous wreck
Who comes at ease

He's an honest being
When in doubt keeps me believing
We are so out of here
We find
What we are seeking
When in doubt
Keep me believing
When in doubt
Keep me down

In the eye of the beholder
A penny for your thoughts
And I'm growing older
When I'm down, yes, indeed
A nervous wreck
Who comes at ease
