Another day, another dollar, another bill collecting caller.

Disillusioned, let down, cause all my heroes are junkies now.

I've been down this road, in the end it's all the same,
another day I'm getting older, another day nothing has
changed.

I've been down this road, I'm wrong when I know I'm
right,

hard pressed to make it better, but I got no will to fight.

26 and I'm flat broke, I've been down so long I have given up hope.

Shattered nerves anxiety, so much more than I wanted to be.

I often wonder what went wrong, but I can't remember,
it's been too long.

Think out loud things I want to change, but I know I never will I'm gonna stay this way.

I've been down this road, in the end it's all the same,
another day I'm getting older, another day nothing has
changed.

I've been down this road, I'm wrong when I know I'm
right,

hard pressed to make it better, but I got no will to...

Is this my great reward, servitude and solitude, a lifetime of chances I have blown

i woulda coulda shoulda been so much more than I really am,

and it's nobody else's fault but my own.

Another day, another dollar, another bill collecting
caller.

Disillusioned, let down, cause I'm nothing more than a fuck up now.

I've been down this road, in the end it's all the same,
another day I'm getting older, another day nothing has
changed.

I've been down this road, I'm wrong when I know I'm
right,

hard pressed to make it better, but I got no will to fight
