"Hands Around My Heart"

Blow, you wild winds above
Breathe out your breath of love
Try to save this simple man from falling.

Send, your wild winds to me
To save and set me free
Try to hear the tired words I'm calling

I need delight, to feed my soul tonight
Come cradle this man torn apart
I'm waiting for your hands around my heart

Blow, blow down from where you stand
Across this loveless land
Send a ray of hope to light my fire

Over desert over sea
Let the wind blow through to me
Through to me to lift my spirits higher

I need delight to save my soul tonight
Come cradle this man torn apart
I'm ready for your hands around my heart
