i am just the grey one

i'm the darker side of you and there's a space you left inside me i hope it will amuse

and see this sign carved in my arm

just means i'll hate you all forever it's my babyskin tattoo it's all the brand name that you've left it's not so far from me to you

it's not so far circumsized myself because i knew you'd be too busy and i saw the knife was dull just why the fuck d'you think i'm crying styes caught in my eye and it swells me 'til i'm numbing but i'll leave it here to punish you for leaving me so hard

it's not so far
i deliver i will receive all the blessings from this things given tested longer held back only here
and there's a place you left inside me i hope it will amuse
it's all the brand name that you've left me and i beg borrow prostrate here under cover of everything made dear fearing only fearing only you
