Well I woke up lastnight

In a technology haze

My eyes were all sparked

From this common ???

So I found me a doctor who said he'd even me out

Took my highs and my lows

Cause the colors were just too loud

And if the day becomes night

The only world agrees

The innocence runs out

Well this is the price to pay

Chorus:

Mr. Jangle whatcha gonna do

When the sun breaks down and the rain pours true

Please tell me baby whatcha gonna do this time I, I, I

Mr. Jangle whatcha gonna do

When the sun breaks down and the rain pours true

Please tell me baby whatcha gonna do this time

Whatcha gonna do

Whatcha gonna do this time [this time]

Whatcha gonna do, whatcha gonna do this time [this time]

Whatcha gonna do, gonna do

You got caught on my teeth so I spit out my tongue

And I cut off these hands just to see if feeling would go

And we dreamt till we drown till we choked on the world

And we bathed in the beauty of all of you [All of you]

(Chorus)

MMM, can't can't can't wait til tomorrow come

can not wait oh no

can not wait til tomorrow, til tomorrow, til tomorrow will come

Ring

Hold On

Mmmm, hey hey, Shaddydady do, uh

Shibidibido, oh

When I woke up lastnight just outside of myself

Skin, hair, bone, broke down, still my same old self

I could not be late, I had tired in my sleep

Suround in the beauty of all of you

(Chorus)

MMM, can't can't can't wait til tomorrow come

can not wait oh no

can not wait til tomorrow, til tomorrow, til tomorrow will come
