Standing at the edge edge of it all spitting off the top
watch the day unfurl cannot see the view from this place clouds are on the rise world is out of faith took another pill to find my way hope that you'll be there this is my way out of it tonight
and this is my last chance to ease the fire
this is my way out of it tonight
how about you
borrowed from a dream that i used to know all my friends were there we watched the world explode took another drink to find my way

i might find one way to get through

and if i could remember if i could find a place a time the space to find another way home

and if i could forget you maybe there's no other way out
