I'm the Trickster burn so brightly

I still hate you motherfuckers everyone

Wrapped in glory bound so tightly

I still need you even when I'm overcome

(chorus)

Saved by the light

Let me go on

Let me go bright

To be saved by the light

Let me go on

Let me go bright

I'm the Trickster burnt so badly

I still hate you motherfuckers everyone

Wore my sickness so politely

I can be your everything to everyone

Void of meaning, swelled just slightly

I still need you

I still need you

Gone forever so consisely

I still need you I still need you

(chorus)

And if you hate the world
Let's say I've been there
And if you hate yourself
Well don't go changing
All the times I used your body
Done my way, can't say I'm sorry
Ripped the gloss off all your memories
Consequences so demanding
Bruised and beaten
Conscience bleeding
(chorus
