bound by the time on the clock bittersweet wondering the quiet transfusion hold tight nothing is complicated hold tight everything's fine confidence fell through the hole in your pocket the simple's illogical so it be logic i'm caught in the diaries with all your complaining the curious scribbles of one who has everything leave me unholy and dirty and beautiful be unholy and dirty and beautiful cherish the lies that you bought charming delusions gone crack in the fire i know we might be mediocre i know nothing's on fire
confidence fell through the hole in your pocket
ridiculous grumblings from one who has everything leave me unholy and dirty and beautiful be
