It's the words you don't say
That keeps ringing in my ear
I feel like an idiot
To think that you really cared

It's the kiss you don't blow
That I keep brushing off my chin
It's the punch you don't throw
That keeps hurting within

I only loved you
I only loved you

It's the words you don't say
That keeps ringing in my ear
I feel like an idiot
To think that you really cared

It's the kiss you don't blow
That I keep brushing off my chin
It's the punch you don't throw
That keeps hurting within

I only loved you
I only loved you

Whatever you do
Whatever you say
Whatever you do
Whatever you say

It's the words you don't scream
That being sucked back in
A dream within a dream
It's not what you've seen

It's what you don't understand
That makes you sharper than
The ones who
Take advantage of you

I only loved you

I only loved you

Whatever you do
Whatever you say
Whatever you do
Whatever you say

Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this music

Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this music

Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this

Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this music
Sick of this music

Whatever you do
Whatever you say
Whatever you do
Whatever you say

I only loved you
A cellular goodbye

I only loved you
(Whatever you do)
(Whatever you say)
(Whatever you do)
(Whatever you say)

I only loved you
A cellular goodbye
I only loved you
