I have an emergency
can you help me out
wake up
wake up
wake up
don't you let go now I'm feeling like I cannot hold on You're slipping slipping
slipping
right before my eyes
I'm begging you to breathe
The thrill of victory
the agony of defeat
I'm over the edge
and the page says red letter day
The smoke in the mirror's revealing the sinner in you
The sinner in me
You have a dependency and I won't be around sooner or later you'll figure it out on your own

Before now

you're on the city streets alone

wake up

wake up

wake up

wake up from your lies

I'm begging you to breathe

I'm over the edge

and the page says red letter day

The smoke in the mirror's

revealing the sinner in you

The sinner in me
