Yeah,Yeah,Yeah,Yeah,Yeah,Yeah,Yeah, Oh
Yeah,Yeah,Yeah,Yeah,Yeah, Ooh, Yeah

Singing in my room, writing my new songs
The music feels right, but my lyrics are wrong
It's gonna take a while, but I'll keep singing all night long

My radio is gone, but my record deals on
I know I will rock, with my guitar turned on strong
And soon enough, the world will get to hear me sing my songs

Chorus
All i want to do is sing, nobody ever knows
All i want to do is sing ,when everybody hears me
Nobody ever knows

Standing on a stage, with a smile on my face
We start with the drums, and then we add in the base
The music starts to play, and the crowd begins to sway

They all sing along, while I'm belting my new songs
And soon enough, the world will get to see where I belong

Chorus

Doesn't matter where I am
And I don't care if no one's listening
When my heart says to let It show, It's time to let it go
