I said goodbye, I've done my grieving
I said goodbye, but this sorrow ain't leaving
My weeping has stopped, my tears have dried
But I can't stop this pain inside

I miss that man, he was so dear to me
I miss that man, he treated me tenderly
He ain't coming back, I know that he's gone
Still I pray for a miracle to send him along

Now I wonder just how long it takes
I'm beginning to wonder how to fix a heartbreak
I get through the day, do what I have to do
But every night I dream about you

I said goodbye, I've done my grieving
I said goodbye, but this sorrow ain't leaving
My weeping has stopped, my tears have dried
But I can't stop this pain inside
