Same train, two different times
It took your life, now it's got mine
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train

Whistle blowing, just up the line
I'm on the wrong track, at just the right time

BRIDGE:

Don't need to punch my ticket
You can keep it, bud
And I bequeath all my baggage to the lord above
If you won't stop this train and let me off behind
I'll throw myself out the window if I still got the time

I see the engine, like in a dream
It's coming our way, with a full head of steam
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train

REPEAT BRIDGE

Red light, bells start to ring
But Casey Jr. don't hear a thing
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train

Engineer, head on the wheel
Says, "Mr. Brakeman, shuffle and deal."
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train

REPEAT BRIDGE

Same train, two different times
It took your life, now it's got mine
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train
Hey conductor, somebody stop this train
