Don't walk too close Don't breathe so soft Don't talk so sweet Don't sing Don't lay oh so near

Please, don't let me fall in love with you again

Please let me forget all those sweet smiles
all of the passion
all of the peace, the heat, the pain
all those blue skies where your words were my freedom

Please, don't let me fall in love with you again

Too many times
I've cared too much I stood on the edge
and saw that you held my hand and knowing too well
I couldn't hide from those eyes
