well i know you been working most nights and i think you deserve something nice for once, you do and the twins they're been drivin you nuts but tonight your in luck guess what. here's what hey babe we're going out tonight we're finally gonna do it right no more pinching pennies with a broke ass loser i've had a change of luck, i found the twenty bucks i thought i lost under the sofa i'm feeling like a hundredaire and baby i just don't care where we go or what we spend so grab your friends cuz money's not an issue tonight hey baby we're going out tonight just bring your appetite for luxury and fun cuz money's not an issue go on baby now make a wish i'm feeling irish rich i found me pot 'o gold and living large, it fits you feel free to super size cuz tonight dreams are realized i know that it's been rough and you don't get the stuff that such a pretty lady is so deserving of but now that's not the case i'll shower your sweet face with champagne dreams and moustache kisses i'm well aware that i've been kind of cheap and tight but all that's changed and we're going to do it right so tell your friends thatmoney's not an issue tonight
