"My Special Moment"

This is my special moment, don't question me or disagree.
I know that I have earned this, damnit I deserve this-
do not fuck with me- it's my special time.

And I'll seize this opportunity and show them what it means to me to be king shit for a minute then just disappear.
And with passion and/or talent, self righteously and gallantly,
I'll slip away and evryone will know it- this is my special moment.

My shitty life has lead me to this perfect minute.
Remember how I did this, taking care of business for once... they'll see me get it right. Kicking screaming, fighting for my life- I have decided it is time.

This is my special moment, don't question me or disagree.
I know that I have earned this, damnit I deserve this-
do not fuck with me- it's my special time.

Oh God!

I'm doing it for real, I'm doing really doing it-reaching for the skies and gouging out the eyes of anyone who dares to interfere.
Conquering the fear, and showing that the time is mine.

This is my special moment, don't question me or disagree.
I know that I have earned this, damnit I deserve this-
do not fuck with me- it's my special time,
do not fuck with me- it's my special time,
do not fuck with me- it's my special time.
