there is a picture
in my soul
which i always deny
there is a place
which i will find
in the future

i will think of you
always in peace

my lost angel
i lost you
i lost you in las vegas
i lost all my money
the only one
who had been left
was you

now what's one to do
to bring you back
onto my knee
until we are free
to fly home

meeting old friends
at the heavensairportcoffeeshoprestaurant where we used to hang around eating ambrosia
until we lost our gravity and pick up our ticket
for levitation
to fly home
