In the year 2001, a number of heavenly bodies had been observed jumping up and down across the night sky. All around the universe, they seem to follow a very strange rhythm.

Dance around the planet
Shake it up together
Heaven is so close tonight
I can feel you jamming
Up and down forever
Speeding like a satellite

I wanna shout to everybody
From Jupiter and Juno, from Venus to Mars [1]
People from all the universe
Dancing really crazy, were coming to town

Dance dance freaky around the universe
You shake it, I love it, were freaking up together
Dance dance kinky around the universe
Jumpin jackin to the skys on fire
Dance dance freaky around the universe
You shake it, I love it, were freaking up together
Dance dance kinky around the universe
Jumpin jackin to the skys on fire

Mommy told my Daddy
Can you take me higher
Fly me to the stars tonight
Baby are you ready
Racing in a skyride
Rocket at the speed of light
