Whhooooowooooaaaaahhhhhh!

Fears growing, leave with someone else
Blood flowing, a message to myself
Oh no
You separate my heart
Forgotten from the start
Another wanton thief
Another burning tree
You separate my heart
Forgotten from the start
So take your dreams
And broken bones
And come on down because the world keeps turning

So lay your fame down upon me
Oh, lay your fame down upon me
So lay your fame down upon me
Oh, lay your fame down upon me

Won't you stand up?
Don't lose ground
You'll find yourself in your own sweet time
I don't want your love
Give it all back to me
