"No Surrender"

I live in shadows
Walkng alone
Don't want the dreams of the forces who know
I take in sunshine
I take in rain

A guilded storm cloud over sun kissed skies
A deepest secret held behind blue eyes
I take in sunshine
I take in rain
I'm burning bridges till they bring you home again

No, No, No
No surrender
No, No, No
No surrender

I'll back the world!

I live in shadows
Walking alone
Don't want the dreams of the forces who know
I take in sunshine
I take in rain
I'm burning bridges till they bring you home again

A guilded stormcloud over sunkissed skies
A deepest secret held behind blue eyes
I take in sunshine
I take in rain
I'm burning bridges till they bring you home again

No, No, No
No surrender
I said No, No, No
No surrender

I'll back the world!

Just one life
Just one truth

To take all these things
That remind of you

Just one life
Just one truth
To take all these things
That remind of you

I'd take your confidants
All your insolence
I'd take all of your lies
And the things you despise

I'd take your confidants
All your insolence
I'd take all of your lies
And the things you despise

No, No, No, No, No, No
No surrender
No, No, No, No, No, No, No, No
No Surrender
