CHORUS:

What's he got that I don't?
I hope he's what you're looking for,
Please tell me why it is: unfaithfulness and ego turns
you on?

VERSE 1:

You keep me hanging on with no intentions,
Relationships with interventions,
Feeding me the vaguest reasons why I should hang around.
I know I don't deserve the best but I know it is not how you suggest (No one should feel this way) Waiting, watching you and him, while I just fade away ...

PRE-CHORUS:

The biting of lips, the pressing of hips and now I'm gone,
I'm biting the curb so do not disturb just do me in.

VERSE 2:

There's no words that I can use to describe how I feel at this very moment,
But I'll give it a try: 'I wanna slit his fucking throat'.
I know the chains are off, but I don't wanna walk far enough for me to find out,
I'm contemplating you and me, while he just fades away ...

CHORUS:

What's he got that I don't?
I hope he's what you're looking for,
Please tell me why it is: unfaithfulness and ego turns
you on?
But keep smiling please that smile you do, cos when you smile; I smile too,
I know it's not my face, i know it's not my place for me to say: 'He's not the one for you'
