Can't escape this question in my mind, all around me.
People fall in love but I was blind till you found me.
I don't know why, I can't stop the fire that grows inside.
I don't know how and I can't control it now.

Young ones everywhere, making music they can share.
Young ones everywhere, touching hands to show they care.
Young ones everywhere, get the feeling in the air.
Young ones everywhere, miss somebody who's not there.

Sometimes, I've a feeling I could give love forever
Strong enough to make my heart relieve nights together.
You shared my dreams, now it's hard for me to understand
Just what it means, were they castles in the sand ?

Young ones everywhere, making music they can share.
Young ones everywhere, touching hands to show they care.
Young ones everywhere, get the feeling in the air.
Young ones everywhere, miss somebody who's not there.
