"Better Than Yesterday"

no rush to be the man that you want me to be i go too slow
it's better than backwards lives you lead come home let go pay some attention to me i believe in you

please don't complain i'll throw it all away
i live today better than yesterday i'll dream away dance naked in front of me
i live today better than yesterday

it's messed up how you leave leave me to burn in eternity i go don't follow you turn and throw it all back at me there is nothing you can do to save me
i believe in you
it's all over unless you come near i breathe deep i see it real clearly believe in me
