These city walls
Are like a prison
Why we got to keep on living
With our backs against the wall?

We are creatures of love
Victims of hate
Why we got to keep on living
With our backs against the wall?
Let me tell you

No no no
Start living on a higher vibration
'Cause we take it to the heights of creation, yeah
Now we are living on a higher vibration, yeah
Take it to the heights of creation, yeah

Perfection of divinity
Is everyone's duty
Perfection of divinity
Is everyone's duty

Don't waste your time
Living for the vanities
We are creatures of faith
Victims of destiny which we create

Now we living on a higher vibration
Woh, yeah, take it to the heights of creation, yeah
'Cause we are living on a higher vibration
'Cause we take it to the heights of creation, yeah

Lemme tell you now
Yeah, yeah, yeah
One more time
Yeah, yeah, yeah

You know what I'm talking 'bout
Don't tell me no
Baby I could scream and shout
But I won't

'Cause it's a human experience
On another sphere
And this is human existence
It's on another wavelength

Well, lemme tell you now
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Now we living on a higher vibration, yeah
You know we take it to the heights of creation, yeah,
woh yeah
We are living on a higher vibration, higher vibration
Take it to the heights of creation, yeah

So let me take you little higher
(Vibration)
And then you take me little higher
(Creation)
Come let me take you little higher
(Vibration)
Then you take me little higher
(Creation)
We are living on a higher vibration

These city walls
Are like a prison
Why we got to keep on living
With our backs against the wall?

We are creatures of love
Victims of hate
Why we got to keep on living
The cops pushing us against the wall?

Perfection of divinity
Is everyone's duty
Perfection of divinity
Is everyone's duty

Perfection of divinity
Is everyone's duty
Perfection of divinity
Is everyone's duty

Don't waste your time
Living for the vanities
Don't waste your time
Living for the vanities
We are creatures of faith
Victims of destiny

And do you know what I'm talking about?
I say you know what I'm talking about?
Do you know what we are talking about?

'Cause it's a human experience
On another sphere, yo
Well it's a human existence
On another wavelength

So lemme tell you
Yeah, yeah, yeah
