Oh,
You don't have an answer do ya
Thinkin' I'd see right through ya
Well maybe think right this time

Tell me now;
How would it be, to be me, and to see you
Becoming this guy I feel sorry for?

You don't have an answer, do ya
So you wanna let me run right through ya
Don't say that's all you've got in store boy,
Na na na na na
You don't have an answer, do ya
Thinkin' I can give it right back to ya
Don't wanna make you cry again boy
Na na na na na

You know I'm always up to something
Tell me did you see it coming
Or did you just bite your tongue
I can wait here forever
Boy you better not be clever
'cause I don't really know right from wrong

Tell me now;
How would it be, to be me, and to see you
Becoming this guy I feel sorry for?

You don't have an answer, do ya
So you wanna let me run right through ya
Don't say that's all you've got in store boy,
Na na na na na
You don't have an answer, do ya
Thinkin' I can give it right back to ya
Don't wanna make you cry again boy
Na na na na na

Ooh, Na na na na na...

Oh, you don't have an answer, do ya

Thinkin' I'd give it to ya
Don't wanna make you cry again, Oh no!

Tell me now;
How would it be, to be me, and to see you
Becoming this guy I feel sorry for?

You don't have an answer, do ya
So you wanna let me run right through ya
Don't say that's all you've got in store boy,
Na na na na na
You don't have an answer, do ya
Thinkin' I can give it right back to ya
Don't wanna make you cry again boy
Na na na na na

You don't have an answer, do ya
So you wanna let me run right through ya
Don't say that's all you've got in store boy,
Na na na na na
You don't have an answer, do ya
Thinkin' I can give it right back to ya
Don't wanna make you cry again boy
Na na na na na
