I should count to ten before I slap your face again
And I should count to ten before I trash your place again
I'm through, sick of you, keep on falling on a razor
You gotta give it a try
I should count to ten but I don't want to, anymore

If you see me acting in a strange way
Don't come running cause you'll be in my range
'Cause tonight I'm just a rebel with a cause

I should eat my meal before I loose my appetite
And you should lighten up before you see my darkest side
I'm through, sick of you, go and do yourself a favor
You gotta give it; you gotta give it a try
I should count to ten but I don't want to anymore

If you see me acting in a strange way
Don't come running cause you'll be in my range
'Cause tonight I'm just a rebel with a cause

I should count to ten before I slap your face again
I should count to ten before I trash your place again
I should count to ten before I slap your face again
I should count to ten but I don't want to anymore

I'm just a rebel with a cause
With a cause
I'm just a rebel with a cause
