turn off the TV and sing we look lost, where to begin? step outside the cage in your head the station's wrong, the frequency dead somehow this seems like a hollywood blockbuster scene like a football team but it's not a good thing at all it's a sign we cannot read turn off the radio now we don't know why or know how how this could be like a nightmare on your street dream like a friday 13 but it's such a waste of our time it's a mess that we can't clean feel the urgency say it's alright this emergency and wonder what it means so stay in tonight a just watch TV so what do we need

it's the same out of date harmony like some tired melody and it's such a waste of our time it's a mind without a dream
