is the wonder iâ€™m alone on this ringing telephone itâ€™s all thatâ€™s between my happiness and the last chance of loneliness much to my just realize much to my surprise i found the chance people make the ridiculous trying so hard to remain and ambiguous you know is hard to be somebody when everyone around me is laughing and all that i can do is nothing

(chorus)
i swear is ok
i want you to stay so tell me what do you say all my life iâ€™ve waiting for this moment i want you to know i swear that iâ€™ll go if you take one more step, donâ€™t cause all my life iâ€™ve waiting for this moment this moment

is enough to make you cry still you have to wonder why and more than you know i envy you but i nnever give up for insty you

(chorus)

this moment (x5)
