wait

everybody wants to be with you but everybody knows there's more to you than what you say there is, we know it's true you

you didn't want to know we know it's you you didn't have guts to say what's on your mind and it's too late now, you're out of time you wanted, to be there say i'm wrong, you know it's true you were the one, you were the one i i didn't hear a word of what you said i'm sorry but i can't explain the things you do you want to stay, but walk away we

we didn't have guts to see it through we didn't have guts to say what's on our minds

but they don't know us or what we've been through you were the one
