Go on and shine your own light
You donâ€™t need to reflect the brilliance of others
You are brighter than a star

Go on and find your own way
You donâ€™t need to look for answers from others
Within you here they are

Over the boundaries of the unknown
Never fear to leap towards a stepping-stone

Go on and shine your own light
Thereâ€™s no need to reflect the brilliance of others
You are brighter than a star

Go on and find your own path
You donâ€™t need to walk the distance
You can fly, spread your wings you will go far

Over the boundaries of the unknown
Never fear to leap towards a stepping-stone

Across the seven seas
You can sail as you please
Your lifeâ€™s a voyage of discovery

Across the deep blue skies
A brand new day arises
Your choices are meant to be wise

Go on and shine
Youâ€™re star youâ€™re so bright

Go on and shine, my child
Youâ€™re star youâ€™re so bright
