Call it too much, call me out of touch
But that's what I'm thinking
Call it too hard, call me gone too far
But that's where I'm going

Call it too strange, call me weird, call me crazy

Call it too soon, call it shoot the moon
But that's what I'm doing
Call it absurd, call me odd bird
But that's what I'm wearing

Call it too strange, call me weird, call me crazy
Call it too strange, call me weird, call me crazy
Call, call, call me anything you want to

Call it jazz-punk, call it folky-funk
But that's what I'm playing
Call it pop-fusion, or techno-blues
But that's what I'm singing

Call it too strange, call me weird, call me crazy
Call it too strange, call me weird, call me crazy
Call, call, call me anything you want to
