The old book says "life is what you make it"
We are trying our best not to break it
In going to the top, sometimes you may drop
Even finding your way, gosh at times you go astray
To reach the scene, if you dig, you must be clean
Just love each other and then you won't be bothered

Now we are sure there's no other place to go
Then can't you see, they've got to let us be

Now we are sure there's no other place to go
Then can't you see, they've got to let us be
