Does anybody know where we're really gonna go?
I was wondering if we've got that real soul
You know the thing you cannot trade or ever own

Does anybody know where we're really gonna go?
I was wondering if we've got that real soul
You know the thing we cannot trade or ever own

Solitude, my sacred mood
Appalachian Springs
All my things

Took a step to the left
Took a step to the right
I saw myself and it wasn't quite right

Does anybody know where we're really gonna go?
I was looking for answers in a soul
In the feelings that a man can't control
I let the fire burn bright in the dead of night
Disappointed she'd get I told a lie
I said that I would never be on their side

Took a step to the left
Took a step to the right
And I saw myself and it wasn't quite right
Took a step to the left
Took a step to the right
I keep it together, yeaaaaah!

And I was waiting for my number come
Like a bingo calling, singing in the sun
You said 'our number's 69', I said 'ok'

Solitude, my sacred mood
Appalachian Springs
All my things

Took a step to the left
Took a step to the right
Yeah, I keep it together

You know I'm not lying
Took a step to the left, yeah
I took a step to the right
I'm gonna keep it together

C'mon [x 3]

Does anybody know where we're really gonna go?
I was wondering if we've got that real soul
You know the thing you can't trade or ever own
Or ever own [x 9]

Good luck, I'm coming home
Feels so young
I don't know where I've gone

I took a step to the left
I took a step to the right
And I saw myself and it wasn't quite right
Yeah, a step to the dreams
Slippin' out, slippin' in and out of dreams
