Drink the water to ease my pain

Nights like these I only read about

Nights like these I only dreamt about

As we turned

As we rolled

I felt something strange

I felt you

Something light

Something so bright

I think it was the way of things

I think it was the way of things

Back come back again

Get me a life

Get me a life and see it in everything

Through the dim light

Through those dim lights

I've fallen I'm falling falling falling

In the endless life
