The Verve - Feel (10:41)

As darkness cooled my life
We move to (a) different side
I pulled the guilt right over my eyes
As I rose to meet, to greet the sky

I've never felt this before
To see you dead on my floor
I can't recall a single day
That's gonna make this pain sail away

My senses have been so cold
Didn't know how to feel or hold
For a second I felt something new
For a second I believed in you

And I wanna know, and I wanna be, and I wanna feel
And I wanna know, and I wanna be, and I wanna feel
And I wanna know, and I wanna be, and I wanna feel
And I wanna know, and I wanna be, and I wanna feel

Could my friend weaken?

We could, my friend we can
We should my....
I wanna be part of....

Cos I wanna know, and I wanna be, and I wanna feel
Cos I wanna know, and I wanna be, and I wanna feel
