I sit and wonder, I often wonder
I sit and wonder about the things she does
I sit and wonder, I often wonder,
I've been waiting for this moment to come

And she's the teacher and I'm the pupil but I aint learning anything at all,
Now I'm falling into the black hole and I can barely feel the sun

Yeah I sit and wonder, I fall to pieces
I've been waiting for her to come
A bed of roses, her cheeks like peaches,
Yeah I aint going to wait no more

Give me some light, give me the light
Yeah give me some light, give me some light

Well writes a passage, we are mistaken, yeah some are going to break into stone
The door is open and I am reaching, yeah it looks like a prodical son

Yeah give me some light, give me the light
Yeah give me some light, give me some light.

God give me the light, give me the light
Yeah give me some light, give me some light

I've been having trouble with my head lord
I've been having demons in my mind lord
Something is going on inside my head lord
Something is going on inside my head lord
