Strap me in, set the gauge to full
Launch me up into space
Am I coming back baby, I don't know am I coming back
Am I coming back baby, I don't know
I watched myself say goodbye to you last time
Say my last goodbyes to my last familiar sight
Cause this supernova is taking over...

I can't hear the voices but I can definitely hear the screams
Coming from this voice box
And I can't hear voices, and I can't hear voices
I can't hear the voices but I can definitely hear the
screams
Coming from this voice box

I'm drowning on air, counting my breaths
I can't remember if the tank is half empty or if it's half full
Watch my transportation divide

The dots are your eyes, I watch them as I float on by Float on by...gone forever

Goodbye!
Watch my transportation divide
Goodbye...goodbye...goodbye...goodbye!

This is my last hello so goodbye
(The dots are your eyes)
This is my last...this is my last
Goodbye!
