How do you keep yourself from folding
Seems like the whole world is, losing.
How do you stop yourself from giving in
Seems like the whole world is, crying...

She got all I need
Yeah, the air I breath,
When it comes to my valium skies
She don't mind if I cry

How do you stop your lover from crying
Even though you knew she knew you was lying
How do you stop this world from loathing
Still know nothing with all these cards I'm holding

She got all I need
The air I breath,
And when it comes to my valium skies
She don't mind if I cry

She don't mind if I cry
She don't mind if I cry

She got all I need
The air I breath,
And when it comes to my valium skies
She don't mind if I cry

And when it comes to my valium skies
She don't mind if I cry

And when it comes to my valium skies
She don't mind if I cry
