I don't know how you handle the way I am sometimes
You're always smooth and gentle, keeping me in line
I know there are days I don't treat you well
But you never change the way that you feel

Even when I tend to act like a fool
And you can't even say my name
Even when you don't like me at all
You love me just the same

I'm sure it still upsets you, if I come home too late
I figure I'm in trouble when you look at me that way
In spite of the childish things I might do
I know I'm always loved by you

And even when I tend to act like a fool
And you can't even say my name
Even when you don't like me at all
You love me just the same

You never waver or fall to question a rock
You're for ever and ever true

And even when I tend to act like a fool
And you can't even say my name
Even when you don't like me at all
You love me just the same
Even when you don't like me at all
You love me just the same
