Wake up and come alone
Its raining on mars,
The news said that very soon planet earth is going to die.

My god she said with tears in her eyes,
I dont believe what they're saying,
She screamed at the red sky was falling apart, oh I never ment to hurt you, no i never ment to hurt you

Hey! the time has come now, for us to see you,
to realize now,
That somethings wrong with human kind,
the preacher said.

We gather on silver square and looked at the sky the blue pearl of universe is pink and ready to explode, old men are trembling in terror, some others fight for the telescope, reporters pose for the cameras, Oh we never ment to hurt you, no we never ment, no we never ment, no we never ment to hurt you
