We armor ourselves for war
Do damage to pinball scores
Chancing our luck at a stop for trucks

We pick on people smaller than us
But that doesn't do us much
A few men are down but we're not yet done

I wanna know who's gonna be mean
Cause I wanna know who's gonna be mad

Fiascos get out of hand
When evil is in demand
We're playing a war that is not worth winning

We all will stand in line
With citations & or fines
It's hard to stop when you're on top
These coins will be the end of us...

Cause I wanna know who's gonna be mean
Cause I wanna know who's gonna be mad
And I wanna know if it's gonna be me
