just stop this ride because you take me round and round just leave me dizzy for today ill get my barrings back and keep myself intact you thought you ambushed me away right now and did i tell you that i met a ghost and did i tell you i heard the most she told me everything about you its easier with history we still have the mystery just tell me everything about you

so long tonight
its taking me forever
and we're out of time
its taking me forever

is this the time and place or am i just off my face thats never scared you away this nixes everytyhing ive got so much more to give something's been happening today and did i tell you not to make a scene if i did then dont believe a thing drivings always been a best way

and we're out of time (x4)
