Sun child
Youre a sun child
Awoken by the spirit of the day
Will I wild
Speaking so mild
Forgot about the engine in the rain

Dont let it bring you down
For us that aint the way
Well keep our lives reserved
For those who have to pray
But I cant

Sun child
Youre a sun child
Awoken by the spirit of the day
Will I grow wild
Speaking so mild
Forgot about the engine in the rain

Dont let it bring you down
For us that aint the way
Well keep our lives reserved
For those who have to pray
But I cant
