"Double Indemnity"

Twice the money, half the fun.
Double indemnity is meant for one.
Fifty thousand dollars, yes I like it.
that's a nice figure with an anklet.

Twice the money, half the fun.
Double indemnity is meant for one.
Public liability, blame the beneficiary.
Poisons, firearms, drowning, leaps,
all are made to look quite neat.
Dotted line for payment, see.
Accidental policy solves non-binding sanctity.
Insure a life.
Insure its end.
Insure a life.
Insure its end.

Twice as safe. Ten times.
Twice as dangerous. Legal crime.
Leap from the rear end of a moving train.
It's as a rabbit loves a rattlesnake.
Who is the third man? we said we'd play....
straight down the line,
straight down the line,
straight down the line,
straight down the line.

Damn the money, shove the fun.
Double indemnity is meant for none.
Uh-oh. Uh-oh.
The pact is leaking.
The chamber's thinking.
Uh-oh. Uh-oh. Uh-oh.
The pact is leaking.
The chamber's thinking,
and I just do not care.
