One fool on a stool is all I heard the bartender say.
I never thought my whole life could ever turn out this way
Green snakes on the ceiling, Walking walls I can see.
One fool on a stool and on that stool sits this fool me.

One fool on a stool, one drink to a hand.
No thread for your needle, no maâ€™ am I ainâ€™ t seen your man.
Anything you want to tell me, I got no time for.
Just order your drink, And make room for more.

One fool on a stool is all I heard the bartender say.
I never thought my whole life could ever turn out this way
Green snakes on the ceiling, Walking walls I can see.
One fool on a stool and on that stool sits this fool me.

One fool on a stool is all I heard the bartender say.
I never thought my whole life could ever turn out this way
Green snakes on the ceiling, Walking walls I can see.
One fool on a stool and on that stool sits this fool me.
One fool on a stool and on that stool sits this fool me.
